Victoria: I love my life as a wife

Victoria Beckham is giving up her pop career – to be the perfect housewife. The ex-Spice Girl, 31, says she has turned her back on music forever and is not interested in celebrity. She said: “ All I want to do now is stay in and look after my children. I have no plans to make music. I loved my time with the Spice Girls. But that's the past.”

Victoria told a reporter from Spanish magazine Chic that her main aim in life is to make husband David happy. She said: “David is one of the most handsome, elegant and desired men on this planet. I am proud of being his wife. I'd do anything to make him happy.”

Victoria and David live in Spain now, because of David's football career. Even though it is said that Victoria wants to go back to England, she says: “It's great here – the climate, the people, the restaurants.”

Victoria also revealed she would like to have more children – and would particularly love Brooklyn, 5, Romeo, 2, and Cruz, 7 months, to have a sister. She said: “Although I love my boys more than anything in the world I would love to have a girl. In Spain, the fashion for girls is marvellous”.
